Thank you for applying for the National Restaurant Association (the Association) Foodservice Management Professional® [FMP®] certification program. The FMP certification program is a formal process that recognizes your professional excellence in the restaurant and foodservice industry. Those who successfully complete the examination and meet all prerequisites are awarded the FMP designation.

To be eligible to apply for certification and to take the comprehensive examination, applicants must meet the following minimum prerequisites:

Minimum Work Experience. You must have three (3) years of supervisory experience in a restaurant or foodservice operation. If you hold an associate’s degree or higher in business or hospitality, only two (2) years of restaurant or foodservice supervisory experience are required.

Specialized Training. You must have earned a Food Protection Manager certification within a five (5) year period prior to your application date. The examination must meet the intent and scope of the Food Protection Manager Certification Program standards and criteria as established through the Conference for Food Protection (e.g., ServSafe® Food Protection Manager Certification Examination).

Please read the following instructions carefully:

- All applications must be clearly typed or printed with accurate information.
- Do not leave any sections blank. Only completed applications will be accepted.
- Applications are nontransferable. All information will be kept confidential.
- Applicants will be notified of their acceptance to take the examination within two weeks of submitting the application.
- Examinations will be scheduled beginning two weeks following acceptance, and all sections of the examination must be successfully passed within one year of acceptance.

If you have any questions regarding the application, please contact the Service Center at the Association at 800.765.2122, ext. 6703, or in the Chicago area at 312.715.1010, ext. 6703, or direct email to servicecenter@restaurant.org.
